

MISS SELMA UNIVERSITY

Qualifications and Duties

Miss Selma University must be a full-time student and a second semester Freshman to a rising Senior; must have and maintain a grade point average of 2.75 or above; must possess good moral characteristics with pleasing personality; must have demonstrated leadership skills; must submit two letters of character reference. If during her reign she is placed on Academic or Social Probation, or is guilty of immoral behavior, she must give up her title.

Miss Selma University's role includes public speaking and student role model. It is necessary that she be well versed and extremely comfortable in the public eye. This young lady is also expected to be a person of high moral conduct and a student with a great deal of school pride and spirit. She must also have a duty of loyalty towards the University as well as the community.

*The officers named above may or may not be boarding students at the time of election.

*All persons seeking office must indicate on the application that they intend to remain a full-time student for the entire year in which they are to hold an office.

Miss Selma University Scholarship

This young lady is an exceptional student, who not only has a very good academic record, but displays fine character and has excellent school spirit and pride. This election is held by the students and finalized by the President and Vice President of Student Affairs. This exceptional young lady will be awarded a $3000.00 scholarship in the disbursement of $1500.00 per semester, along with $400 stipend each semester that she serves to assist with her public presentation and upkeep.

The elections will be held on the 3rd Tuesday in September