Meet Our Library Assistant

Tammy Ramsey is a Junior at Selma University majoring in Business Administration. She is also our new Library Assistant on campus. Tammy is from Pine Hill, by way of Camden, Alabama. She has maintained a 3.45 GPA since registering August of 2019. Tammy is employed with the Alabama Tombigbee Regional Commissioner in Camden, Alabama. Please drop by the library and welcome Mrs. Ramsey to our Selma University staff.

NOTES FROM THE LIBRARIAN

Welcome to the inaugural issue of the Stone Robinson Library newsletter, ASK A LIBRARIAN! It is our hope that ASK A LIBRARIAN will be a means to inform you of how our library is proactively engaging with our students, faculty and staff. The library is aggressively pursuing opportunities to connect our students with information and resources from traditional content to virtual and online resources. This newsletter will inform you of new resources and services that are available to our students and faculty. The library staff remain committed to supporting Selma University's mission to prepare men and women to be servant leaders throughout the world by providing access to information services that support the curriculum and research needs of its students.

Virtual Reference Library Assistance – Students have access to online library services:

Alabama Virtual Library – <https://avl.lib.al.us> The Alabama Virtual Library provides all students, teachers, and residents of the State of Alabama with 24/7 online access to premier library and information.

Ask-A-Librarian – Selma University students may submit reference questions to the Librarian through the Stone-Robinson Library service Ask-A-Librarian. Our goal will be to answer questions within 72 hours upon receipt of request. The request form may be found on the library's website.

LibGuides – Subject specific library guides to help with research are available on the library's website.

Online Tutorials – <https://library.austincc.edu/help/tutorials.php> tutorials on plagiarism, evaluation resources, writing your research paper and some much more

Refdesk.com – is a quick and accessible web site to online reference resources of dictionaries, encyclopedias, newspapers and news sources, health and medicine

Visit our library web page on the Selma University Home Page www.selmau.edu/library and email library@selmau.edu

Librarian Collaboration Teaching Information Literacy

Information literacy is the ability to locate, evaluate and ethically use information. Information literacy skills are critical for student's success in their academic journey. Faculty who would like more information to have the SU librarian provide information literacy instruction can Book A Librarian on the library's web page.
